

AFS Parent and Youth Advisory Board

Who are we looking for?

- A diverse group of committed youth and adults that represent different genders, relevant age groups, education, abilities, and other life circumstances to offer their voice for change.
- Any youth (15-24) and parents/guardians of youth who are or have been system-involved with interest in giving back to improve services at AFS.

What does an Advisory Board do?

- Assure that AFS is meeting the needs of the population we serve
- Give feedback about what is working and what is not
- Work towards a future where client voice is included in agency decision making
- Provide Leadership opportunities for Advisory Board Members.

When and where will the Advisory Board meet?

WHEN?

Monthly or bi-monthly meetings at a time that is best for the participants at Assured Family Services
7310 Woodward, Ste 601
